

TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR A. M. MATHAI AWARD

- (1) Name of the Award: A. M. Mathai Award (for best publication in Applicable Mathematics).
- (2) Amount of Donation: Rs. 5 lakh (Rupees Ten lakh only).
- (3) Conditions of Award:
  - (a) The paper should contain significant original contribution in any branch of mathematics which has some applications in other fields such as Physical Sciences, Biological and Medical Sciences, Social Sciences, Probability and Statistics.
Papers on theory for 'theory sake' are to be excluded.
  - (b) The paper should be a single-author paper.
  - (c) The upper age limit is 35 years as on December 31 of the year in which the paper is considered for this award.
  - (d) The author should not submit more than one publication for this award.
  - (e) The papers considered must have been published either online or in print version, whichever is earlier, during the previous year of the year in which the award is being given. The paper must have been published in an internationally refereed journal. More weightage could be given to well established journals. The papers on routine generalizations, computations of formulae without proper analysis should not be considered for this award.
  - (f) The author should be associated with any university/college/ institution in India where the work was done and the paper must have a mention of the name of that institution as affiliation (the person need not be an Indian citizen).
  - (g) If there is no good paper in a particular year then this award need not be given in that year.
  - (h) The paper sent for this award should not have been submitted or rejected for any other award.
- (4) Modus Operandi:
  - (a) Paper from all the contestants are to be judged by at least three experts with impeccable record as mathematicians before finalizing by consensus the winner of the award.
  - (b) The experts may be named by the General Secretary of IMS in consultation with the President of IMS and the Editors of JIMS and The Mathematics Student.
  - (c) The decision of the IMS shall be final and shall not be challenged in court of law.

(5) The Award:

- (a) The award shall consist of a citation and a cash prize of Rs. 30,000/-
- (b) The awardee shall be paid TA to the extent of 2-AC rail fair from his / her place of residence in India or after landing in India (if not Indian citizen) and back. This expenditure shall be incurred by the host institute that shall organize the Annual Conference of IMS during year. International travel shall not be supported in any event.
- (c) The awardee will be provided free local hospitality and accommodation during the period of conference.
- (d) The awardee shall have to deliver a lecture based on the text of the paper for which the award has been conferred.
- (e) After every five years the cash prize amount can be revised depending on the interest earned on the deposits from the bank/s.
- (f) Authors should submit a paper for only one award instituted by IMS.

N. K. Thakare
General Secretary, IMS
E-mail: nkthakare@gmail.com
January 12, 2016